

DAILY GAZETTE

WEDNESDAY, JULY 13, 1881.

GAZETTE GLEANINGS.

The reported sale of the "Little Mac" mine at White Oaks is denied.

Pickled tripe and salad a la Delmonico will be served at Billy's lunch today.

More encouraging news from Morley Canyon, in the Gallinas mining district, recently struck.

Grading on the New Mexico & Southern Railroad from Socorro to the Black Range will not begin till October.

The miners in the Tecoloma range are very hopeful. They all think they have got rich stuff if they only sink for it.

M. Whiteman yesterday sent out a large freight train heavily loaded with goods for the White Oaks. He has the faith which wins.

Mr. D. H. Irland, contractor of the Las Vegas Gas works, is receiving the congratulations of our citizens on the success of the works.

The contract with John Hill for the construction of the Academy building was signed yesterday. Mr. Hill is securing material and will begin work in a few days.

The rain fell in torrents yesterday afternoon, flooding the streets and drenching everything. The rain drizzled all through the afternoon, but just at sunset it cleared up.

Through mistake the name of the contractor of the Las Vegas Academy building was given as Hall in yesterday's issue of the GAZETTE. It should have been John Hill.

As soon as Marwede's new building adjoining the postoffice is completed Architect Wheelock will move in. He and C. Frank Allen, the Engineer, will occupy offices together.

It is suggested that local talent should be turned to the production of a drama, "Las Vegas by Gaslight," to be presented on the opening night of the new Opera House that is to be built.

It is reported on good authority that Fred Harvey, who has so successfully run the eating houses along the line of the A. T. & S. F. R. R. is to be the lessee of the new hotel at the Hot Springs.

Mr. Marwede of the hardware house of Marwede, Brumley & Co. arrived from his Southern trip yesterday. He brought with him a number of line orders for job lots of hardware to be filled for the Southern country.

Towards the latter part of last week one of the teams which had been in Santa Fe during the week with a load of salt from below was struck by lightning in the vicinity of Galisteo. The driver was killed and one or two of the oxen injured.

T. Romero & Son will shortly move into more commodious quarters, in the store formerly occupied by Stover & Co., on the plaza. A new front will be put in and the exterior and interior of the building will be entirely renovated. —Albuquerque Journal.

Milt Yarberry, Albuquerque's murderous marshal, is safely lodged in the Santa Fe jail. He clings to the hope that Judge Prince will release him on a writ of habeas corpus. It is reported that the Police Gazette is anxious to secure Yarberry's picture.

The wholesale and jobbing trade of Las Vegas is steadily increasing. Our merchants are not lying idle, but are pushing their respective branches of business into the most remote parts of the Territory. We have the stocks of goods, we have the men and we have the money to make Las Vegas the great business center of the Territory.

C. H. Benjamin & Co. yesterday bought out J. W. McDonald & Co.'s Park Grocery on the plaza. Mr. Benjamin was formerly engaged in business in Leadville and brings to this business large experience in the grocery trade. They propose to keep a first class stock of groceries, fruits, vegetables, etc. in season and by fair and square dealing merit a share of the public patronage.

Judd S. Credit yesterday raised in front of his business place, a monumental barber pole. It towers aloft like the monument of Bunker Hill. It is the biggest barber sign in New Mexico. The base is a solid cube, surmounted by a pyramidal shaft and terminating in a golden globe which reaches away above the Exchange Hotel. It is symmetrical in shape and handsomely painted. After all there is nothing like advertising.

Five Cattle Thieves Lynched.

The Albuquerque Journal of Monday says: "Word reached here to-day from the Rio Puerco that five Mexicans were lynched at a point twenty miles from this city, on last Saturday night. It seems that a gang of cattle thieves has been operating quite extensively among the herds on the Rio Puerco, and the herders made up their minds that immediate punishment should be visited upon any one caught in the act of running off cattle. The five men who were hung were overtaken Saturday evening and had fifteen cattle in their possession. No ceremony was used, the ropes were speedily adjusted, and five cattle thieves are now shoveling coal.

Distinguished Tourists.

Mr. E. Conklin of New York arrived in Las Vegas yesterday. He is a journalist of acknowledged high rank, and an artist as well, and has been attached to the editorial corps of Frank Leslie's publications for a number of years. Mr. Conklin is the author of several very creditable works among them "Picturesque Arizona," and a similar work on New Mexico may be published by him before long. The special object of his visit to the Territory and Las Vegas at this time, however, is to arrange for a trans-continental tour by Mrs. Frank Leslie and party. In her husband's lifetime a trip by the upper overland route was made by a party gotten up by Frank Leslie that resulted in the advertisement of the country adjacent to the Central and Union Pacific Railways, in a far better way than was ever accomplished before or since. Mrs. Leslie, who has secured possession of the Leslie publications after long litigation, now proposes to make a similar trip through the great Southwest. Realizing the importance of this vast region that awaits development, Mrs. Leslie has about decided to travel through Arizona and New Mexico with a party, and select such points as impress her as being of the greatest importance as subjects for descriptive articles that will be illustrated in Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper. Should she find sufficient encouragement, the trip will be made and she will be accompanied by several special artists, Mr. Conklin and probably several other journalists of ability. It will be readily seen that this proposed tour, if the plan be carried out, will result in much good to the Territory. The fact that Mrs. Leslie herself pays a visit to New Mexico would be of some importance, for it advertises a country well to be honored by a visit from distinguished people, because it shows that they must be persuaded that it has interest about it, not alone on the score of natural beauty but on account of the great possibilities of the future. Then again, the impressions of the country as expressed and published as coming from people of such a class are valuable. But in this case, the impressions formed will be embodied in descriptive articles prepared by talented writers, and will have the additional advantage of being illustrated. The medium through which these are to be published is too well known to be commented upon. Frank Leslie's, as the weekly illustrated newspaper is usually called, ranks high among periodicals of this character. Its circulation is great, and the articles on New Mexico, the publication of which would be continued through a number of years, would come before intelligent people, who thus being informed as to our resources may be induced to settle here or form business associations in the Territory.

White Oaks.

The news from White Oaks is most encouraging. The stamp mill that started up last week is fast getting into running order, the machinery being tightened up, etc., ready for brisk work. The miners are all happy, and the sound of the stamp causes hope to spring up in all. The camp has settled down to legitimate mining, and there is a demand for more men to work in the mines. Representatives of eastern capitalists go quietly into the Oaks in coy., and are constantly buying properties at good figures.

The sales are made quietly and little is heard of the transactions, so that people who make a short visit there are deceived by appearance into imagining there is little moving in the mining world. It is reported that Mr. Leer, owner of the stamp mill, is buying into different properties every few days. On the whole the camp is not exactly booming, but gradually developing at a sure and steady pace. There is nothing fictitious about the prosperity, for there is the stuff in the claims that are being opened up to warrant the rise in real estate in the camp, that is bound to be one of the foremost in the West.

Six-Shooter Moral.

A young man by the name of Charles O'Neil was shot by a friend on Saturday at Bonanza City, the result of senseless fooling with a six-shooter. Both of the men had been snapping revolvers at one another for an hour or more. O'Neil's being empty chambered, while the other was a centre-fire gun loaded with rim cartridges. It had been snapped repeatedly without being discharged but finally it did go off. O'Neil was shot in the abdomen. The wounded man is very low but may recover. O'Neil and family had been running a boarding house and were arranging to leave the camp when the accident happened. He is spoken of as a very industrious young man and his friend, who so nearly snuffed his life out, is greatly distressed about the accident.

St. Paul's Episcopal Chapel is to be fitted up for the accommodation of more worshippers. The chancel is to be raised a step and carpeted, and the rail will be set back, thus affording more room for pews. There will be a central aisle instead of two side aisles, as at present, that will make it more convenient for people to reach their seats. The addition to the chapel, as at first proposed, will not be built at present.

PERSONAL.

N. L. Rosenthal has put up a new and substantial awning in front of his store on Railroad avenue.

Mr. Stump, at present engaged in business at Trinidad, is down looking at Las Vegas with a view to investments.

R. H. Deeves, who has valuable mining claims in White Oaks and vicinity, is in the city with his pockets full of rich specimens.

H. Cohn, of the Boston Clothing House, starts this morning for the East. He will purchase the finest stock of fall goods ever brought to the West.

Mr. H. C. Baldwin, of the A. T. & S. F. R. R. engineering corps, returned yesterday from a six weeks inspection of Arizona. He is considerably bronzed and much improved in health.

U. Ozanne is up from White Oaks purchasing goods to stock his new store building. He is one of the most enterprising men in the camp, and his faith in its future is unbounded.

George H. Hubbs, Judge Chambers, J. G. Evans, Ira W. Smith and William Budd went out to Mineral Hill yesterday to put in solid work in developing their claims and encouraging the boys.

Mr. Brown, of Indianapolis, Ind., is in the city on a visit to his father-in-law, Judge Steel. This is his second visit to the Territory, and he is more favorably impressed each time.

W. G. Franklin, the Socorro mining operator, passed east yesterday en route to St. Louis and New York on business. He is positive that the railroad from Socorro to the Black Range will be built and in operation before many months.

B. F. Allen, of Allen Bros., large stock raisers of Butler county, Kansas, and who has been interested more or less in the stock business in New Mexico for the past few years, was among the arrivals yesterday. Mr. Allen cannot well keep from hankering after New Mexico.

D. B. Burger came up from White Oaks Monday night and left yesterday for Ft. Scott, Kansas. He will return again in ninety days. He has invested heavily in town property in White Oaks and has faith that real estate will be a bonanza. He will spend his time in talking up the camp, and will do much towards inducing people to settle there.

News About Las Vegas From Abroad.

Isn't about time for Bond, of the Mosilla News to take out the alleged "ad" of the Exchange Hotel of Las Vegas? The "ad" might have been all right a year and a half ago, but Mr. Wesche has been out of the house for months. Bond must keep the advertisement standing for old acquaintance sake, for it is marked Vol. 2, No. 11, and the last issue of the News bears the legend Vol. 8, No. 34. We don't blame you, Bond, for clinging to the old landmark, but the following don't read quite right as we see it in Las Vegas:

Exchange Hotel,

LAS VEGAS, N. M.

Charles E. Wesche.

PROPRIETOR.

U. S. Forage Agency. A first-class bar, well supplied, a Billiard Room, furnished with the latest patent Tables, and as well supplied a table as can be found in the Territory. v2n11

Success to a Surveyor.

A few months ago we made mention of the resignation of Mr. C. Frank Allen, who had been for a long time in charge of the drafting office of Chief Engineer Robinson, of the A. T. & S. F. R. R. Mr. Allen had decided to open an engineer's office in this city, but temporarily accepted a similar position with the Mexican Central Railway. He returned from Paso del Norte on Monday, and has just opened his office in Las Vegas as mineral and land surveyor. Mr. Allen is too well known, both professionally and personally, to our people to need any recommendation. He is an excellent engineer, having had the best of technical education and great experience, both in railway and general engineering.

House Warming.

Last night Mr. A. Dold gave a house warming to a number of his friends in the new building just completed for Herbert & Co.'s drug store. The building had just been completed, and Mrs. Scott Moore, Miss Williams, of Albuquerque, and other friends being in the city, an impromptu party was gotten up in honor of the occasion and the guests. The invitations were not general, as the time was too limited. The room under the new and brilliant gas light presented a handsome appearance, and as the music was come the merry guests tripped a few measures in honor of the proprietor of the elegant stone building. It was high-toned throughout, and thoroughly enjoyable, as may be judged from the following prominent ladies and gentlemen who were present: Hon. M. A. Otero, wife and daughter, Mamie Otero, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. La Rue, of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Rush Holmes, Mrs. Scott Moore and sister, Miss Clara Williams, Judge Levi Davis and daughter, Mrs. W. B. Stapp, Mr. and Mrs. M. Romero, Col. Brunswick, Dr. Robbins and daughter, Dr. Milligan, Dr. Tipton, O. L. Houghton, Eugene Reilly, A. G. Hood, Mrs. W. B. Bernard, of Trinidad, Mrs. Ireland and daughter, Miss Pearl Ireland, Clarence Wells, Miss Annie M. Bloom, of Trinidad, Mrs. Wisner and daughter, Col. G. W. Stoner, road.

Marcellino & Boffa provided the music and ice cream. Coffee and cake were furnished for refreshments in the Park Restaurant, adjoining. It was altogether a most pleasant party.
